Implementation Guideline for Combatting Sex/Gender Based Discrimination

The district is committed to ensuring equity in all its programs. This document is designed to help the administration avoid claims of sex/gender based discrimination and to ensure all students and employees are treated fairly.

Education - Students

The district's anti-bullying and anti-discrimination education efforts will include education to students regarding the following topics:

- Identifying bullying and cyberbullying
- Identifying all forms of discrimination, including sex discrimination based on gender stereotypes, gender nonconformity, and transgender status
- Concrete and age appropriate examples of harassment, intimidation, discrimination and bullying – and appropriate responses
- Outline of the district's conduct expectations
- Ways in which prohibited conduct adversely affects the education environment
- Identification of bullying and discrimination coordinators
- Explanation of how to file a claim of harassment, intimidation, discrimination or bullying

Education – Staff

All school personnel have a responsibility to understand the district's commitment to eliminate all forms of discrimination in all its programs. The district will provide basic training to school personnel to ensure success, including information about who to contact in regard to potential discrimination. The district will also provide additional training to personnel who are designated program coordinators.

Handbooks

All school site handbooks must contain the following language:

There will be no discrimination in the district because of race, color, sex, pregnancy, gender, gender expression or identity, national origin, religion, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, age, or genetic information in its programs, services, activities and employment. The following people have been designated to handle inquiries regarding the district's non-discrimination policies:

All district employees and students will be provided with age appropriate education regarding types of discrimination, harassment and bullying. Students and employees will also be advised of the district's expectations regarding appropriate conduct. Any student who is experiencing difficulty fully accessing the district's education programs should contact the appropriate coordinator so a success plan can be developed for the student.

Administrator Responses

Any administrator who becomes aware that a student is pregnant or transitioning to a different gender must meet privately with the student and the student's parent/guardian to discuss the situation. The 2023 Oklahoma "Parents' Bill of Rights" (OAC 210:10-2-1, et seq.), requires the district to disclose to a student's parent/guardian any information known to the district or its employees regarding material changes reasonably expected to be important to the parent/guardian regarding their student's health, social, or psychological development, including identity information. Disclosure of this information shall occur within 30 days of learning the information. "Identity information" means information including, but not limited to, any names or pronouns used by a student at school and any social transition or other transition to a gender that differs from the student's sex. "Sex" means the physical condition of being male or female based on genetics and physiology, as identified on the individual's original birth certificate.

The student and parent/guardian meeting must include creation of a transition plan. The plan is not to be punitive/exclusionary in nature and must be designed to ensure the student's educational success.

Each student and the student's parent/guardian must be provided with information regarding the district's nondiscrimination policies and procedures and the name/contact information for the district's nondiscrimination coordinators. The student and the student's parent/guardian must also be provided with the name/number of a staff liaison in the event the student or the student's parent/guardian encounters any difficulties with his/her education.

Because gender transitioning is an emerging area in the law, the superintendent must be advised of any such situation which presents itself so he/she can consult with legal counsel.

Placement and Other Education Considerations
For Special Circumstances

In an attempt to meet individual student needs, the district will consider all placement and related education options at times when traditional instruction and other access may not be in a student's best interests. This worksheet will guide the administrator, parent/guardian (if authorized by the student), and student in making the best decision possible given the totality of the circumstances. This placement will be reviewed as often as needed but at least once per semester.

Placement Options¹

- Retain Current Placement*
The student retains his/her current schedule at his/her current school.
- Current School / New Schedule*
The student continues at his/her current school but with a different class schedule.
- In-District Transfer*
The student is transferred to another school within the district.
- Out-of-District Transfer*
The district consents to the student transferring to another school district. This option requires the consent of the receiving school district, which is outside this district's control.
- Blended Learning*
The student receives educational services by taking supplemental online courses or participating in an online program. This option is available for secondary students only.
- Dropout Prevention*
The student receives all education services via online instruction. This option is available for secondary students only.
- Alternative School*
This option requires an application process prior to placement.
- Health Considerations / IEP*
These options include partial school days, 504 Plans, and homebound instruction. Additional evaluations may be required prior to placement with these options.

¹ No student will be excluded from regular classes or segregated in any way based on special or unique circumstances alone. All educational placements, including extracurricular activities, will be considered based on the entirety of the student's unique circumstances. Regardless of the placement option agreed upon between the school and the family, additional supportive services may be added as deemed appropriate.
